

Student Story Card 1

Meet Steve, a third-grade student who has behavioral issues that started in kindergarten.

The behaviors have led to many suspensions and modified school days. Steve, who is above average cognitively, has learned that if he misbehaves, he gets to go home and play video games.

He is assessed and taken away from his home school and placed in an alternative school setting, without a pathway back. He becomes “gone and forgotten.”